Ron Bero is a Senior Director of The BERO Group. He is the Chair of our Valuation practice and Co-Chair of our Commercial Litigation practice.

Ron works with attorneys, government agencies and businesses. He provides accounting and financial consulting services primarily in the form of expert testimony pertaining to economic damage and valuation issues in a wide range of civil litigation matters. Ron's experience with The BERO Group spans more than 16 years. He has testified as an expert more than 50 times in trials, depositions, arbitrations and other hearings in both state and federal courts.

Ron's forensic accounting and damages quantification experience includes breach of contract matters, solvency opinions, automotive dealership disputes, failure to deliver technology, fiduciary breaches, erroneous business valuations, personal injury, music copyright valuation and other similar matters. Ron has served as an expert in commercial litigation matters concerning a wide range of industries including automotive, construction, retail, toys, trucking, waste, energy, securities, medical devices, insurance, banking, farming and manufacturing, among others.

Ron bases his opinions on his "real-world" financial leadership experience. Prior to joining the firm, he held Chief Financial Officer, Vice President of Operations and Information Technology, Auditor and other senior-level positions in the U.S., Canada and Eastern Europe. Ron has been involved in numerous industries as diverse as food service distribution, heavy manufacturing, forest products, mining, pulp and paper, construction, retail and waste management. Ron has performed financial, fraud, operational and other forensic investigations in more than 100 companies on a global level from tiny Alaska Native Corporations to Fortune 500 companies. He has integrated the operations and systems in more than 40 acquisitions, performed due diligence globally and facilitated numerous company restructurings and turnarounds.
